

PRESS RELEASE

REGIMBEAU'S GRENOBLE OFFICE IS EXPANDING!

Grenoble, November 23, 2018 - Established in Grenoble since 2010, REGIMBEAU is pleased to announce the arrival of Aurélia VAVASSEUR, Patent Engineer, and Esther DUPAIN, Trademark Attorney.

The expertise of REGIMBEAU is based on a thorough knowledge of the activity of the clients it accompanies, in their own environment.

In order to respond to the evolution of these needs, Aurélia VAVASSEUR and Esther DUPAIN have joined the Grenoble office.

Aurélia VAVASSEUR began her career in Industrial Property at REGIMBEAU in 2015, after a post-doctorate in the Department of Microbiology and Molecular Genetics at the University of California Irvine.

An INRA graduate in Agribusiness and Biochemical Engineering and Doctor in Cellular Biology, Aurélia is also a CEIPI graduate (distinction in patents).

She is particularly involved in the following scientific and technical fields: Cellular Biology, Molecular Biology, Molecular Genetics, Epigenetics and RNA Regulation, Biochemistry, Microbiology.

Esther DUPAIN, French & European Trademark and Design Attorney, began her career in Industrial Property in 2004.

After several experiences in Patent Law firms abroad (Thailand and Australia), she joined REGIMBEAU in 2007.

With a Master's degree in Intellectual Property and an LLM in International Legal Practice and Intellectual Property - of Bond University (Australia), Esther is responsible for trademarks, designs, domain names and copyright law activities. She has also developed specific expertise in infringement.

For Frédérique DURIEUX, Head of the Grenoble office, the arrival of these two collaborators is an opportunity for the agency to broaden its range of activities: "We are very happy to consolidate our expertise at the local level, thanks to Esther's skills in trademark law and Aurélia's in Life Sciences on the patent side."

The Grenoble office now has 6 employees.

Historically based in Paris, REGIMBEAU, leader in intellectual property, is also present in Montpellier, Lyon, Grenoble, Toulouse, Rennes, Caen and Munich.
