

PRESS RELEASE

THOMAS MOISAND, SENIOR PATENT ATTORNEY, JOINS REGIMBEAU

Paris, March 18, 2021 - REGIMBEAU, a major actor in the field of Industrial Property, is pleased to announce the arrival of Thomas MOISAND in its Paris office as part of the development of its ITC, Mechanics and Physics Department.

The appointment of Thomas MOISAND, as Senior Associate, is in line with the development strategy of REGIMBEAU's ITC, Mechanics, and Physics Department.

As a French and European patent attorney, having practiced for several years in another law firm where he headed the Electronics and Physics-Chemistry department, Thomas MOISAND joins an experienced team of professionals with whom he has already worked for many years.

"On behalf of all of REGIMBEAU's associates and partners, I would like to welcome Thomas MOISAND. Thomas is well-acquainted with REGIMBEAU's culture, having previously spent more than ten years with us. He is a proven professional whose expertise is recognised and whose experience coincides perfectly with our development objectives, particularly in the innovative sectors of telecommunications, electronics, and software innovations in data science and artificial intelligence. We are delighted to welcome him back at a key moment in REGIMBEAU's history, which celebrates its 90th anniversary this year with the aim of consolidating its position as a major player in industrial property in Europe." states Jean-Robert CALLON DE LAMARCK, Managing Partner at REGIMBEAU.

A graduate of SUPELEC (Ecole Supérieure d'Electricité), Thomas also holds a Master of Science in Digital Systems Engineering (Heriott-Watt University), a postgraduate degree in Technology and Innovation Management (Paris Dauphine) and the "Patent Litigation in Europe" University Diploma delivered by CEIPI.

He has been recognised as a "Patent Star" in the Managing Intellectual Property ranking in 2020/2021.

With nearly 20 years of experience, Thomas MOISAND is used to advising a wide variety of clients (start-ups, SMEs, public research institutes, major industrial players), particularly in the telecommunications, digital, microelectronics and energy sectors.

He assists these clients in defining and implementing their industrial property strategy, for the protection as well as for the evaluation, exploitation or defense of their immaterial assets.

About REGIMBEAU:

REGIMBEAU, a French IP law firm, has been assisting companies and private and public project developers to protect, enhance and defend their innovations (patents, trademarks, designs) for 90 years. Fourteen partners head a team of more than 200 people whose skills are put into practice in every strategic aspect of Intellectual Property - business intelligence and information search, license agreements, IP portfolio audits, partnership negotiations, acquisition of industrial property rights, litigation. Thanks to its wide-ranging expertise, REGIMBEAU (present in Paris, Munich, Lyon, Rennes, Grenoble, Montpellier and Toulouse) can meet its clients' needs for international strategic consulting while preserving personalized relations of the highest quality.
